Brief Description of HL No. 046

This lot has a unique shape, with foliate mouth, shallow abdomen, and rounded feet. The center of the plate is painted with Wucai yellow glaze with five blue unicorns. As a product of the Qing palace, the ornamentation "Huan" has similar pronunciation as the Chinese word "Shou", that means auspiciousness and exquisite painting. The combination of the unicorns and the ornamentation implies that "five blessings are celebrated together, extending for all generations". Five unicorns are surrounding and playing with the bats, as the pronunciation of the Chinese word "Bats" and "Blessings" are the same. This collection of five Wucai unicorns holding a longevity poliate plate of a delicate porcelain with perfect appearance.

Market price: USD70,000-85,000
